Do you guys want to request anything? I will do almost anything... I just can't draw humans though QwQ

Anyways here's some random stuff I made

Fan art for MarkaiCat

[image] [image]

This is fan art for MarkaiCat 's story not close enough... It's a really good story uwu.

Sorry I can't draw humans.....

Little bro vs. me

[image] [image]

So my little brother and I gave each other little classes it lessons on how to draw things....

This is my little brother's art. He says that the dog has a spiked tail. The dog also has an eye patch because someone hurt him there. And drew headphones because he thinks it looks cool.

This is my drawing... Im impressed on how good my brother was able to follow along with me. His drawing turned pretty good for his age... (*He's probably going to draw drawings better than me soon though -_-") request I did

[image] [image] [image][image] [image]

My friend requested this drawing of a corgi.

This looked different in my head.

So my friend told me to draw a red Panda mix with King Cobra mix with ferret.

Warning there's going to be very bad drawings of people ahead.

I can't draw humans at all...
(╖ ﹏ ╖)

country cats?

Kitten USSR was chosen

Soviet woke up surrounded by snow. He didn't knew how he got here since last time he was in his room.

Soviet stood up and looked around. The forest was unfamiliar to him. Soviet felt scared and worried.

Then he found paw prints on the floor next to him.

Should he...

•wait there....

•explore around.....

•follow the paw prints.....

Kitten USSR: 2

[image]

[image]

Follow the paw prints was chosen

Soviet follows the paw prints in hopes to be able to find help. The paw prints where bigger than his own paws.

Soviet walked for a while with no luck. Soon he saw a figure in the distance. Soviet was able to identify the figure as his dad.

Soviet ran towards his dad yelling happily, "papa!"

Russian Empire looked back with an annoyed almost angry expression.

Should Soviet....

•run and nuzzle him happily...

•stop going towards him...

•ask what's wrong....

Kitten USSR: 3

[image] [image]
[image]

ask what's wrong was chosen

Soviet asked his dad what's wrong. He was very confused and worried for Russian Empire.

Russian Empire was quiet for a bit. "What's wrong" he said in a frustrated voice, "what's wrong is that you didn't stay where you were!"

Soviet was very confused on his father's sudden outburst. Empire also looked more angry.

"I-I don't understand...." Soviet said. Empire growled, "I. Don't. Want. You. Anymore. You cause nothing but trouble! So just leave and NEVER return back."

Soviet was shocked. "But papa!" Soviet tried to say. Russian Empire now angry attacked his son and scratched his right eye. Soviet cried out in pain and looked at Empire fearfully.

Should Soviet:

•run away....

•ask what he did wrong....

•ask for forgiveness....

Kitten USSR: 4

[image][image]

run away was chosen

Soviet ran away, terrified of what his father could do if he stayed any longer. He ran and ran without looking back.

Soviet ran as quickly as possible into the cold forest. He didn't know how long he ran but he didn't stop until he tripped over something in the snow.

By this point Soviet was exhausted. It was also getting dark outside. Soviet panted as he looked around.

He spotted a log with a hole in the middle. He also spotted a cave nearby.

Should Soviet:

•go rest in the log

•go rest in the cave

•continue walking

Kitten USSR: 5

[image]
[image]

go rest in the cave was chosen

Soviet went to the cave tiredly. His paws felt numb due to him running for soo long. He was looking forward to rest.

Soviet played down inside the cave and slowly let the darkness consume him. Soviet slept soundly that night.

The next day Soviet woke up, still half asleep, and felt something warm and cozy beside him. Soviet nuzzled it trying to absorbed all the warmth.

Soviet then looked at what he was nuzzling. He froze as he saw a huge bear sleeping next to him. Soviet was frozen in place as he stared at the sleeping beast.

Should Soviet:

•slowly crawl away

•stay where he is

•wake up the bear

Kitten USSR: 6

[image]
[image]

Stay where he is was chosen

Soviet stayed where he was, afraid to wake up the beast besides him. He didn't wanted to be it's next meal. Soviet tried to be as quiet as possible.

The bear soon started to wake up. Soviet felt his heart stop as the beast yawned displaying it's large deadly jaws. Soviet gulped as he watched.

The bear looked at Soviet causing the small kitten to freeze on the spot. The bear then licked Soviet and had a soft smile. Soviet was confused and scared at that moment.

The bear then stood up and looked outside. The bear then started to walk out of the cave. Soviet watched the bear walk outside from his spot.

Should Soviet:

•stay in the cave

•follow the bear

•run away once the bear is gone

Kitten USSR: 7

[image][image]

[image]

follow the bear was chosen

Soviet tried following the bear but sank through the snow. Apparently it snowed last night filling the floor with soft, deep, untouched snow. Soviet struggled through the snow trying to reach the bear.

The bear looked back and spotted the small kitten struggling. So they went back and gently picked up Soviet. After that the bear started walking again.

Soviet at that moment was scared. He thought the bear tried to eat him a few moments ago. He also may or may not be afraid of heights so Soviet was feeling more anxious being picked up high above the soft snow. Though after some time Soviet got a little use to being so high up and wasn't as anxious as before.

The bear reached a river that was still flowing even though it was very cold. The bear then placed Soviet down before going to the river. Soviet was left in the snow to watch the Bear.

Should Soviet:

•stay where he is

•follow the bear into the river

•play/explore in the area

Kitten USSR: 8

[image][image]

stay where he is was chosen

Soviet has stayed and watched the bear. He was quite curious on what the bear might do.

The bear stayed in the freezing water for a while before its giant paws kicked something in the water and unto the air, A fish to be exact. Then the bear captured it with it's giant jaws.

After a while of repeating this process the bear was able to get a pile of fish on the snow covered ground.

Soviet's little stomach growled at the sight of the fishes. He didn't remember the last meal he ate and looks at the pile of fish hungrily.

Should Soviet:

•eat a fish

•ask the bear permission to eat the fish

•try to capture his own fish to eat

Kitten USSR: 9

[image][image][image]

 try to capture his own fish to eat was chosen*

Soviet went to the water's edge and tried to fish for himself. He was sure that he'll be able to catch a fish.

The bear watches Soviet as he tries to fish. But Soviet wasn't able to catch any fish since they were too fast for him.

Soviet soon was able to leap on a pretty large fish. The fish however wasn't going to let Soviet capture it so it tried to escape into the deeper side of the river dragging Soviet as well.

Soviet did not know how to swim so he started to drown when the fish unexpectedly dragged him into the deep and icy water. Water splashed Soviet's face and Soviet had accidentally swallowed the water causing him to struggle more.

The bear was quick to jump into the river and quickly picked Soviet up, saving his life. The bear walked back to the snowy ground where she placed Soviet down.

Soviet was shaking violently and had teary eyes. He was cold, scared, hungry, and upset of himself for not being able to do something as simple as fishing. He felt horrible overall.

Should Soviet:

•go to the bear for warmth

•silently sob

•go back to the cave

Kitten USSR: 10

[image][image]

 go to the bear for warmth

Soviet went to the bear for some warmth. The bear laid down and let Soviet cuddle to her chest. Soviet shaking slowly started to stop as he tried to dry himself. Soviet felt cold and upset with himself that he couldn't do a simple tasks such as fishing

Soviet was thinking about his father. Maybe he left him and attacked him because he was no good at anything. He couldn't do anything right and maybe it is his fault that his father hates him now. Soviet now feels more sadden when thinking about this. Why do I have to be such a useless kitten? Soviet thought to himself.

Soviet's small stomach growled, reminding him that he was still hungry. Soviet also felt cold and tired.

Should Soviet:

•eat some fish the bear caught

•stay where he is

•go back to the cave

Happy New Years

I'm a little early, yet we're behind most of all the other countries but here-

I don't know what Im saying anymore-

More drawings :D

My friend on Discord gave me this idea. It's just our favorite animal mixed with our favorite fruit.

I'll never finish this, sorry.

2018
Vs
2020

This is my character blue and if anyone says he looks like blue's clues or whatever I will hunt you down.
Anyways he's my comfort character. I draw him whenever Im sad which was a lot in elementary because of bullying and stuff. Though I drew it digitally in middle school due to more bullying and me feeling alone.

I have made new character, his name is Winx.

Now you can skip this as it's me talking about this character you guys probably don't care about-

Winx is like a dragon hybrid that lives in the snowy mountains. He's 8.3 ft tall, and the outer bones on his back can be moved on his command. He guards the sacred mountains from people, who are slowly destroying the forest. He believes that humans are nothing but a plague to the Earth after watching all of the destruction they have caused.

The thing that made Winx hate the human race so much was when a group of poachers captured his family when he was very young. He was able to escape but saw his parents and older siblings get slaughter in front of his face. He was left in horror when he saw how they killed his father and torture his mother. The worse was when they skinned his siblings alive and their painful screeches was heard in the air as he ran away to the forest where he took refuge.

Ever since that day he became the monster of the mountains. Where he killed any human being that dared to step on his territory. He'll torture the person before slowly eating them when they're half alive. If a child trespasses, Winx would either killed them instantly or scare them away, depending if he's hungry or not.

Winx spends most of his time in the peak of the mountain, roaming around and eating the bark of the trees or rocks. He also likes to help a small animal in need, which could include, bunnies, birds, deers, fox cubs, wolf cubs, pine Martins, squirrel, etc. Many of the animals see Winx as their protector and sometimes like to sleep in his den during the cold winters. Because of this Winx is always seen with a group of animals trailing behind him or on his back.

During winter the Winx comes down from the mountains and protects the nearby forest from people. He gets fuel more anger whenever he sees the forest shrinking every year. The Winx comes down on winter only because he's weak against the heat. He is a creature of ice and snow. He originally used to live in Antarctica before the poachers captured him and his family so too much heat could weaken him greatly or even kill him.

And yeah, thats all I got for him. And everyone left.....

Something I probably wont finish

[image] [image] [image] [image]

So I got an idea. Had a rush of motivation and now my motivation has died-

So this is what I did-

Warning: it's bad because I can't draw people nor a comic-

Also there's some blood-

I-

[image][image]

Did I actually did this?

This can't be....

This is a mistake!

I couldn't have drawn this-

It's actually good and Im proud of it-

How did I drew this!? I'm probably dreaming-
Yes Im dreaming-

Or my mind is tricking me because Ive been sleep deprived and it's

11:30 PM. That's probably it-

Also this one has freckles-

Unfinished comic

Idk why you guys wanted to see this as it's sucky but here you go-

My art style changes at every drawing-
Oh and my motivation died halfway through and it clearly shows

So some background info. Britain likes to make fun of France and tease her. Britain is also self conscious of his small size and extra toes. He has told France this once so when France yelled at him and mentioned his small size and toes Britain felt betrayed and ashamed. Or something like that-

New ship-

[image]

Now I ship these two furry babies-time to add that to my ship list-

The drawing/ship was inspired by Nadie_6006 's drawings of this ship which if you haven't seen their art, you should definitely go see it as it's adorable and amazing-

Haha- Im somehow alive!?!?

I haven't been alive lately..... Been real busy with school yet Im failing most of my classes-

But Ill just post the few drawings I did while I was gone.

First thing, my fursona/OC Snowy

Yes she can turn into dragon-

Now some concerning drawings I doodled during class

Fun fact: did you know Heynas only laugh when they're in pain?

Now some country cats-

Ok that's all I can offer, now I have to concentrate on request-

Rawr

Drawing people again

[image]

I have been feeling happy lately..... Too happy...

This is getting suspicious!!!!

But anyways-
With my new amount of happiness I have drawn something for a friend

Nadie_6006

Drew one of your characters-

Background not mine-

Anyways, hope you like it!

Oops my hand slipped-

[image] [image][image]

I forgot to post this-

Anyways-
I was just doodling some stuff for friends before my hand slipped.
I'm sorry but I have bad allergies and the constant sneezing did this-

What did I do you may ask. Well I may or may not have turned people's characters into cats-

First of here's on of SparklingWonder364 's OC

May or may not have drawn your character without references. Also may have gotten the patterns wrong and if I did I apologise for that.

Then here's Nadie_6006 's character

May have went overboard with the pattern. Just like to draw as much detail as possible to animals that have brown fur some reason.

Last but not least is FiniPiePlayz 's character

How do you draw hats? They're so hard to do-
Fini why-

The Bloodied White

by: Lilith (aka me!)

I apologise for being dead, life's been very busy for me. Also my mental health is n't the best since my friendship with someone ended..... But uh- yes this poem/drawings are vent about my current feelings towards myself.

Oh look! New fursona and name! Not sure if I mentioned this here, but Im changing my fursona from Snowy (white wolf) to Lilith. You guys can refer to me as either Snowy or Lilith, don't really mind which one you use.

Uh, have a nice night/day!

Haha Im super late

[image]

I know this was held a while ago-
But I did it super late because Ive been busy when it was held-

Still, hope you like it Nadie_6006

The art challenges

[image] [image] [image] [image] [image]

So after seeing and talking with Nadie_6006
I decided to post some drawings I have made of the art challenges.

Also don't forget to check their art book, they got many great drawings!

First things first! A regular drawing

This is my usual art style, long ears, rounded face, squared-ish/ round-ish snout, fluff everywhere, and some head fluff too

This next one is draw the opposite style of the one you usually use

So in this one the ears are a bit smaller, it's face is more triangle like, the snout is longer and thinner, there isn't as much fluff, the fur is drawn as lines, no head fluff, no shine in the eyes, and the nose is drawn differently too

This next one is draw with your opposite hand

As you can see here, it's not that great and it's actually smaller compared to the last two drawings

This one was drawn with my eyes closed

This was my second attempt in drawing it, the first one can be barely seen as I didn't erased it too well

Now this last one is drawing while holding your breath

I don't think it's bad. Kinda liked it even though I almost died at the end-

Anyways, these were all of the art challenges that I did

Corgi request

[image]

So Storykittymist requested a drawing

Hope ya like it

Announcement

I'm sorry to say but I don't think I'll continue this. I have been receiving several threats and hate on people after someone published mostly false information about me. I do admit some parts are true but they're over exaggerated for their own benefit. Knowing that most won't be on my side and that threats will only Continue, I decided to stop everything I'm doing, maybe forever, maybe I'll make a new account later on, or maybe I can continue in the future when it calms down.

I apologise for the inconveniences

I have revived!
